Across the street the river runs
C Am
Down in the gutter life is slipping away
C Am
Love me still exist in another place
F G
Running under cover of a helicopter blade

First notes me-me-ray-me

C                                   Am
     The flames are getting higher       in effigy
C                                Am
Burning down the bridges of my memory
C                               Am
     Love may still be alive        somewhere someway
               F                                G
where they're downing only deer a hundred steel towns away

        C                       F
Oh the rhythm of my heart is beating like a drum
          C                                G
with the words "I love you" rolling off my tongue
   C                       F
No never will I roam for I know my place is home
          C                            |G    C   |
where the ocean meets the sky I'll be sail-ing

C                         Am
   Photographs              and kerosene
C                                  Am
light up my darkness, light it up, light it up
      C                              Am
I can still feel the touch of your thin blue jeans
F                                    G
Running down the alley I've got my eyes all over you babe
