My Daddy left home when I was three

D

And he didn't leave much to ma and me

E7

A

Just this old guitar and an empty bottle of booze.

A

Now, I don't blame him cause he run and hid

D

But the meanest thing that he ever did

E7

|A

|

Was before he left, he went and named me "Sue."

A

Well, he must o' thought that is quite a joke

D

And it got a lot of laughs from a' lots of folk,

E7

A

It seems I had to fight my whole life through.

A

Some gal would giggle and I'd get red

D

And some guy'd laugh and I'd bust his head,

E7

|A

|

|

I tell ya, life ain't easy for a boy named "Sue."

A

Well, I grew up quick and I grew up mean,

D

My fist got hard and my wits got keen,

E7

A

I'd roam from town to town to hide my shame.

A

But I made a vow to the moon and stars

D

That I'd search the honky-tonks and bars

E7

|A

|

|

And kill that man who gave me that awful name.

A

Well, it was Gatlinburg in mid-July

D

And I just hit town and my throat was dry,

E7

A

I thought I'd stop and have myself a brew.

A

At an old saloon on a street of mud,

D

There at a table, dealing stud,

E7

|A

|

|

Sat the dirty, mangy dog that named me "Sue."

A

Well, I knew that snake was my own sweet dad

D

From a worn-out picture that my mother'd had,

E7

A

And I knew that scar on his cheek and his evil eye.

A

He was big and bent and gray and old,

D

And I looked at him and my blood ran cold

E7

|A

|

|

|

And I said: "My name is 'Sue!' How do you do!

Now you gonna die!"

A

Well, I hit him hard right between the eyes

D

And he went down, but to my surprise,

E7

A

He come up with a knife and cut off a piece of my ear.

A

But I busted a chair right across his teeth

D

And we crashed through the wall and into the street

E7

|A | |

Kicking and a' gouging in the mud and the blood and the beer.

A

I tell ya, I've fought tougher men

D

But I really can't remember when,

E7

A

He kicked like a mule and he bit like a crocodile.

A

I heard him laugh and then I heard him cuss,

D

He went for his gun and I pulled mine first,

E7

A

He stood there lookin' at me and I saw him smile.

And he said: "Son, this world is rough

D

And if a man's gonna make it, he's gotta be tough

E7

A

And I knew I wouldn't be there to help ya along.

A

So I give ya that name and I said goodbye

D

I knew you'd have to get tough or die

E7

A

And it's that name that helped to make you strong

A

He said: "Now you just fought one hell of a fight

D

And I know you hate me, and you got the right

E7

A

To kill me now, and I wouldn't blame you if you do.

A

But ya ought to thank me, before I die,

D

For the gravel in ya guts and the spit in ya eye

E7

|A

|

|

Cause I'm the son-of-a-bitch that named you "Sue."

What could I do?

A

I got all choked up and I threw down my gun

D

And I called him my pa, and he called me his son,

E7

A

And I came away with a different point of view.

A

And I think about him, now and then,

D!

Every time I try and every time I win,

And if I ever have a son, I think I'm gonna name him...

A! (roll)

Bill or George! Anything but Sue! I still hate that name!
