Deep down Louisiana close to New Orleans
Way back up in the woods among the ever greens
There stood a log cabin made of earth and wood
Where lived a country boy named Johnny B. Goode
Who never ever learned to read or write so well
But he could play the guitar just like a ringing a bell

Go Johnny B. Goode

He used to carry his guitar in a gunny sack
And sit beneath the trees by the railroad track
The engineer would see him sitting in the shade
Strumming to the rhythms that the driver made
People passing by would stop and say
Oh my but that little country boy could play
