"Kids are different today," I hear every mother say
                                                |F         |D         |
Mother needs something today to calm her down
           G
And though she's not really ill
          C       Em7     Am
There's a little yellow pill
         Am!
She goes running for the shelter
     D7!                                                  Mothers Little Helper
Of a mother's little helper                               The Rolling Stones and goes running for the shelter

Of a mother's little helper
