 Why are there so many songs about rainbows,
       G                    Em7 | C            | D            |
 and what's on the other side?
 G                    Em7                    C            D
 Rainbows are visions, but only illusions.
 G                    Em7                    | C            |            |
 Rainbows have nothing to hide.

So we've been told and some choose to believe it.

Bm7

I know they're wrong; wait and see.

Am                    D                    Bm7                    E7

Some day we'll find it, the rainbow connection,

Am                    D

The lovers, the dreamers, and

 Who said that every wish will be heard and answered
       G                      Em7        | C                | D                |
 when wished on a morning star?

What's so amazing and keeps us stargazing?

Bm7

What do we think we might see?

 Have you been half asleep and have you heard voices?
 G                      Em7                      | C              |                      |
 I've heard them calling my name.
 G                      Em7                      Am                      C              D
 Is this the sweet sounds that calls the young sailors?
                     G                      Em7                      | C              |                      |
 The voice might be one and the same.
