I wrote her off for the tenth time today

Am                    F            C            G
And practiced all the things I would say

Am                    F            C            G
But she came over    I lost my nerve

Am                    F            C            G
I took her back and made her dessert

I wait till 2 then I turn out the light

Am            F            C            G
This rejection's got me so low

Am                    F            C                    G

Late at night she knocks on my door
